

Make up your mind
Make up your mind
Make up your mind
Make up your mind

1 pop for the Mondays that come way 2 soon
3 days full of mistakes that wake me at noon
4 shots for Fridays and thinking of you
And all the things I'd rather do
Like jumping off a cliff
Burning all my shit
Throwing myself in a vat of nails
Dancing in the hail
(Don't I love it?)
Punching through a wall
Taking things too far
All because of one thing you refuse to do

Make up your mind
Make up your mind
Make up your mind
Make up your mind
What is it you wanna do?
Cuz I just wanna spend some time with you
Say you want me here with you
But every time I give my heart I seem to lose

Tell me you're leaving to focus on you
Don't you go texting me after day 2
Throwing me scraps like I'd starve without you
There's other things I'd rather do
Like jumping off a cliff
Burning all my shit
Throwing myself in a vat of nails
Dancing in the hail
(Don't I love it?)
Punching through a wall
Taking things too far
All because of one thing you refuse to do

Make up your mind

Make up your mind
Make up your mind
Make up your mind
What is it you wanna do?
Cuz I just wanna spend some time with you
Say you want me here with you
But every time I give my heart I seem to lose
